CROWDS INCREASING

Large Attendance at the Columbian Exposition.

GOOD WEATHER PREVAILING.

Foreign Exhibitors Protest Against the One-Judge System and Threaten to Stop Unpacking Their Exhibits—Miss Phoebe Cousins Defeated—Other World's Fair News.

CHICAGO, May 10.—Now that the weather man has let his machine slip a cog or two, either by design or mistake, the attendance at the exposition is beginning to climb up to pleasing figures. All day crowds moved over the elegant pavements watching the gondolas and electric launches glide over the glassy surface of the pretty lagoons, while many thousands more were taking in the sights in the main buildings and on the Midway Plaisance.

COLUMBIAN GUARDS DIRECTING VISITORS.

Miss Phoebe Cousins has been routed, horse, foot and dragon. By a unanimous vote of the judiciary committee, her application to sit as a member of the national commission has been denied. Commissioner Massey of Delaware, chairman of the judiciary committee, presented the report. The decision of the judiciary committee was based on Section 2 of the act of congress creating the national committee. By this act Mr. Massey held that the membership of the commission was limited to two members from each state and territory and the two alternates. Miss Cousins was not appointed under that act, therefore could not be regarded as a member of the commission and consequently could not be allowed to participate in any of its debates or enjoy any of its prerogatives. Shortly before this report was presented, Miss Cousins asked that by request a communication of hers be read. This communication was simply a presentation of her case to the national commission. In it she demanded admission to the commission and continuous enrollment. Aside from this the communication contained nothing new. Foreign exhibitors are loudly protesting against Chairman John Boyd Thatcher's one-judge system for judging exhibits. A number of them, especially those of Austria and Germany, have already sent into Director General Davis a formal protest. The French, Spanish and the Netherlands exhibitors threaten not to unpack any more exhibits unless distinct assurances are given them that jurors and not single judges shall pass on their exhibits. Director General Davis appears to be helpless in rendering the assistance demanded of him. Nearly every foreign government has sent in a list of eligible names from which a jury of award for their different sections can be selected. These lists have been turned over to Mr. Thatcher by the director general, but Mr. Thatcher has simply pigeon-holed them. The director general asks that immediate attention be paid to these requests, and a letter from him to the national commission will be presented calling attention to the inexcusable delay and asking for immediate relief. Holders of season passes, who have not yet received their pictures, have been in a state of nervous excitement for the last three days. They have been anxious to know whether the time of the passes without the photographs would be extended.

An agent, representing a famous clown, was on Midway Plaisance looking for a location for one of the most unique schemes to rake in the elusive dollar heard of as yet connected with the exposition. Some months ago an eastern rubber firm was given an order to manufacture a life-sized Jersey cow, mounted over fine steel wire netting. When the artificial cow was finished it was touched up with brush and paint, making it quite genuine and hard to distinguish at a distance from a real cow. Fresh milk is to be pumped from the cow and milked out by the glass at the small price of a nickel a glass. This animal has reached the city, but a site has not yet been located.

The choral building was well filled when Director Thomas waved his baton and the orchestra burst into Bach's "Choral and Fugue" as the opening number of the popular concert. The absence of the open air concerts increased the attendance, and a large audience listened approvingly while the program was executed.

The sons of Vermont visited the fair grounds in great numbers and the state building, which is soon to be dedicated, was thrown open to their inspection. The visitors were members of the Vermont Press association, their friends and a number of Chicagoans who claim the Green Mountain state as their home.

RAILROAD MEN TOO SMART.

A Train Boarded by a Gang of Armed Plug Uglies.

LIMA, O., May 10.—About 5 o'clock in the morning Conductor Donovan of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago discovered the presence of a number of men distributed through the train and between the cars of the Pennsylvania limited passenger train, west-bound.

The fellows were tough mugs, and must have boarded the train and secreted themselves at Crestline. Some were inside the cars, hid in the closets, while others were in the vestibules. They were there for no good, and the trainmen kept them apart by locking the car doors until the train reached here, when they were turned over to the police and locked up. The men were all armed, and it is thought boarded the train for the purpose of robbing it at an opportune moment.

Will Entertain the Duke.

CHICAGO, May 10.—A committee of citizens of Columbus, O., headed by Hon. J. H. Outhwaite, called on the Duke of Veragua at the Auditorium and extended to him an invitation to visit their city, which was named in honor of his great ancestor. The duke said in reply that he appreciated most highly the invitation and would accept it if his route eastward could be arranged to include Columbus. Commander Dickens assured him that the necessary arrangements could be made, upon which the duke said: "In that case I shall be very much pleased to accept your honorable invitation." It is said that the duke will remain two days in Columbus.

Hotel Men at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, May 10.—The city is honored by the presence of more hotel managers than it has had in eleven years. The annual meeting of the Hotel Men's Mutual Benefit association is in session here, Mr. L. A. MacCreary of Detroit presiding. After hearing the annual report of the treasurer, Mr. W. L. Jacques of New York was elected president for the ensuing year. After lunch there was a meeting of owners and managers of the hotels, for the purpose of discussing matters of mutual interest, especially the subject of waiters' strikes. The next meeting will be held in Denver the second Tuesday in May, 1894.

United Brethren Conference.

DAYTON, O., May 10.—The general conference of the Church of United Brethren in Christ is held every four years, and the next session will convene here Thursday, May 11. For the first time in the history of the church laymen have a voice in the body. Ministers and laymen are arriving from all parts of the United States. The five bishops of the church are already here—Rev. Jonathan Weaver, D.D., of this city; Rev. John Dickson, D.D., Chambersburg, Pa.; Rev. Nicholas Castle, D.D., Elkhart, Ind.; Rev. E. B. Kephart, D.D., L.L.D., Johnstown, Pa., and Rev. J. W. Holt, D.D., Woodbridge, Cal.

Missed the Bridge.

AKRON, O., May 10.—A peculiar and awful accident occurred on the bridge spanning the Cuyahoga river at the glens near Cuyahoga falls. Gustave Schular and Martha Kline of this city started to drive across the bridge in a buggy in the darkness. They missed the roadway and were precipitated into the river 85 feet below. The buggy was caught and held by the framework of the bridge, and the horse, practically unhurt, was found on a ledge of rock 20 feet below the roadway. The river has been dragged but thus far the bodies have not been recovered.

Dry Goods Destroyed.

UTICA, N. Y., May 10.—The dry goods establishment of J. B. Wells Son & Company was destroyed by fire. The fire burned with frightful rapidity. The clerks, 80 in number, of whom the majority were women, were panic-stricken and several fainted, but there was no loss of life. Several, however, were painfully burned. The stock was valued at $175,000, and was practically ruined. There was an insurance of $107,000 on the stock and $28,000 on the building and fixtures. Small losses were sustained by other occupants.

Arrested For Perjury.

COLUMBUS, O., May 10.—Henry Webber, aged 22, who was recently divorced from his young wife was arrested for perjury on complaint of his new mother-in-law, Mrs. Million. Tuesday, May 2, he and Mrs. Million's young daughter were married secretly. The bride is under 18 years and Mrs. Million caused Webber's arrest for swearing falsely in securing the license. The young couple were to have a reception Tuesday night but the groom was in jail.

Showman Killed.

MIDDLETOWN, O., May 10.—George Pence, belonging to Forepaugh's show, was killed here by cars as the show train was leaving the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton yards. He is a young man, whose parents live on a farm near Barry, Ills. The body was frightfully mangled.

PROGRESS OF CROPS.

Synopsis of the Weather Bureau's Weekly Bulletin.

ALL THE STATES REPORTING.

Everything Retarded by the Unusual Bad Weather Is the Report Coming From Many of the States and Territories, Still There Is No Cause For Fearing a Famine.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The weather bureau has issued a bulletin of the progress of the crops for the week ending Tuesday, May 9, of which the following is a synopsis:

New England—Season cold and backward; frost not all out of the ground in the north.

New York—All crops good, although delayed; grass excellent; no seeding; little plowing in north section.

New Jersey—Excessive rains and deficiency of temperature and sunshine have practically stopped all growth and farmwork; tender seeds are rotting in the ground.

Pennsylvania—Ground thoroughly soaked; no corn planted; over one-half oat crop, and potatoes yet to be sown; winter grain and grass in fair condition.

Maryland—Fruit in some sections reported injured by heavy rains, high winds and frosts; wheat, rye, oats and grass improved; potatoes and tobacco plants thriving.

Mississippi—Conditions generally not favorable; crops becoming grassy; creek bottoms overflowed; some replanting necessary.

Arizona—Melons, figs and strawberries ripe; other fruits promise well.

Utah—Crops have not been much injured, although set back, and with good warm weather will do well.

Washington—Winter wheat doing fairly well; grass is improving more rapidly and stock is looking well; all fruit trees except apples are in bloom, except in Wahkiakum county; prospects very good for large crop in most sections.

Oregon—Good growing weather; spring seeding greatly retarded in Willamette valley and on lowlands in Columbia river valley and western Oregon; trees in full bloom and leaf; sheep shearing commenced.

California—Grain crops short; cherries, prunes, almonds and berries average.

age; peaches two-thirds and apricots one-third crop; hope improving rapidly; sugar beets in San Bernardino, Orange and Monterey counties good; bean planting in Santa Barbara and Ventura counties rapidly advancing.

POLITICAL EVENT.

Meeting of the National League of Republican Clubs.

LOUISVILLE, May 10.—The largest convention of the National League of Republican Clubs that has ever been held since the birth of the organization is in session here.

When the convention assembled the Democratic mayor of the Falls City bid them thrice welcome and told them that they were welcome to the best and choicest of Kentucky hospitality.

Many states that failed of representation last year and the year before responded to the roll call Thursday morning with good sized delegations. The event is also notable for the large attendance of men that for years have been prominent in the councils of the older heads of the party. The presence of such men as J. Sloan Fassett of New York, J. H. Manley of Maine, the trusted friend of the late idol of the Republican party; Powell Clayton of Arkansas, R. C. Kerens of St. Louis, Governor Nelson of Minnesota, M. H. DeYoung of San Francisco, John G. W. of Indiana, J. K. Dubose of Idaho, John M. Thurston of Nebraska, and others of the leading lights of the party testifies to the interest that is manifested in the movement toward enlisting new life and energy into the junior brigade.

At the same time many of those whose presence have been confidently relied upon have found it impossible, from one cause or another, to put in an appearance. Among these are ex-President Harrison, ex-Vice President Morton, Governor McKinley, Thomas B. Reed, Senator Spooner and Henry Cabot Lodge. The suggestion, however, that their absence is occasioned by any lukewarmness, or the belief that it is yet too early to commence to lay plans for future Republican success, is emphatically repudiated by General Clarkson and his colleagues. They say that each and every absence is accounted for on the score of prior political or business engagements, and that each of the absentees has written an expression of his warmest interest in the future of the league.

It is not among the probabilities that the convention will either directly or indirectly suggest that a reconstruction of the Republican party should be a necessary result of the defeat of last November, or that it will advocate the enunciation of any new doctrines.

The silverites from the far west who are anxious to place the convention on record as favoring free coinage as a party issue, may be permitted an opportunity of presenting their case, but the convention will have none of any other outside "ism."

Plans will be submitted for broadening and extending the work of the league preparatory first to the congressional elections for next year, and, second, to the next presidential campaign; likewise regarding the ways and means of securing the necessary sinews of war, and a strong committee will be appointed to carry these plans into effect. "Be up and doing" is to be the watchword, and both the leaders and the rank and file agree that from now on the political bonfires must be lighted on every hill and the work of proselytism and organization must be carried on throughout the country with vigor and energy as though the national election was a thing of the immediate future instead of the recent past.

The meeting of the National Republican committee divides interest with that of the league. Concerning this gathering there is an air of mystery. None of the members on the ground, from Chairman Thomas H. Carter down, will admit that they know just what they are likely to do beyond the fact that they will review the political situation as it affects the Republican party, excepting regarding the causes of last year's defeat, and possibly embody their conclusions in an address to the country.

Headquarters have been opened at a local hotel by Mrs. J. Ellen Foster of Iowa as the solitary delegate of the Women's Republican league. As she can not hold a convention all by herself she proposes to assert her right to be seated as a member of the league convention proper.

The name of General Alger as a candidate for the league presidency was sprung and received with some favor by the delegates as yet unpledged. W. W. Tracy of Illinois has gained considerable, but a big delegation of Buckeyes are whooping things up for President Squires of the Ohio State league, and claim a majority of the convention in advance. President Burke of the College league appears to be having everything his own way in his canvass for the secretaryship. The National Republican committee has endorsed by resolution the action of its executive committee in New York on the 15th of last July, making Thomas H. Carter, chairman of the campaign committee. This resolution was bitterly opposed by De Young of California, Clayton of Arkansas and Kerens of Missouri. This commits the committee to the recognition of Carter as chairman for the remainder of the term.

Quiet Day at the White House.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Six senators and five representatives called on Mr. Cleveland before the cabinet meeting began at 11 o'clock. They obeyed the letter of the president's rules and brought no constituents with them. No attempts were made by persons other than senators and representatives to see the president. It was a very quiet day, the quietest at the White House since March 4 with the exception of the period during which the president was absent in New York and Chicago.

HONOLULU ADVICES.

Some Important Information Given Out at Washington.

STATE DEPARTMENT SECRETS.

Ex-Representative Blount Will Be Appointed Minister Resident to the Hawaiian Islands In Place of Minister Stevens—The Annexation Sentiment Growing Among the Natives.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Officials of the state department confirm the predictions heretofore made that ex-Representative Blount would be appointed minister resident to the Hawaiian Islands. It has been supposed that Minister Stevens would remain in charge of the legation until the 24th of this month, at which time he had announced his intention of sailing for San Francisco. It is now known that Mr. Stevens has been instructed to forthwith turn over the legation to Commissioner Blount, who has been appointed his successor. There is reason to believe that Mr. Stevens was not allowed to remain in charge of the legation until the 24th inst., because of his activity in behalf of annexation.

It is further stated at the department that Messrs. Bowen and Sewall, who went to Honolulu shortly after Commissioner Blount's arrival, have been active in their efforts to stimulate sentiment on the islands in favor of annexation, and are thought to have created the impression that in so doing they were representing the president. Secretary Gresham has informed Mr. Blount that the president repudiates everything said and done by these gentlemen. Mr. Sewall was an applicant for the position of third assistant secretary of state under the present administration, but failed to secure the appointment.

Minister Stevens, who will sail for the United States on the 24th inst., will be accompanied by Mrs. Stevens. They will bring with them the body of the daughter who was drowned early in this year.

Letters received by naval officers and others in the government service indicate that the provisional government maintains a firm hold. One letter states that the natives' sentiment in favor of annexation is growing.

MACHINISTS' MEETING.

Doings of the International Convention at Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 10.—The International Association of Machinists devoted the day to the election of officers. There were two candidates for grand-master machinist, James O'Connell of Oil City, and James Barnes of Boston. The qualifications of each were fully set before the convention in nominating and seconding speeches, and Mr. O'Connell was elected.

Mr. O'Connell is 35 years old. He has been identified with the association since its organization, and his election, the delegates say, will add great strength to the body. For years Mr. O'Connell has taken an active part in the organization of labor. He identified himself with the Knights of Labor, and has for 10 years been one of the leaders in that organization.

There were also two candidates for the office of secretary-treasurer. Heretofore there has been both a secretary and a treasurer elected, but by the action of this convention the offices have been consolidated. The candidates for the office were W. L. Dawley of Richmond and J. D. Ferguson of Muskegon, Mich. Mr. Dawley was elected.

He has been the only grand secretary the association has ever had, and the delegates believed that it would not be wise to change at this time. By the change in headquarters of the order, Mr. Dawley will come to Indianapolis for residence.

The headquarters or the organization will be removed from Richmond to Indianapolis. The Indianapolis delegates spoke briefly in favor of this city and advocates for Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City were also heard. Indianapolis was chosen on the first ballot by a large majority. The association will maintain a permanent office in this city. The official paper of the organization will also be published in this city.

OHIO MINERS.

Pick Men Will Return to Work at the Old Price.

COLUMBUS, O., May 10.—The coal operators and miners held a meeting here with the view of settling the strike. The strike is practically settled, but there were some hitchers. The miners withdrew their demand for a 5 cents advance to the pick miners, and these miners will resume work at once at the old price of 70 cents per ton.

The miners insisted on having the prices for machine mining left to arbitration. Mr. Chapman, one of the heavy operators in Jackson, objected to the advance of the prices in his county and refused to even consider the proposition to submit the question to arbitration.

Carlyle Harris Buried.

ALBANY, May 10.—The remains of Carlyle W. Harris were buried in the Rural cemetery here yesterday afternoon. The lot was purchased several days ago but by whom it could not be ascertained. Mrs. Harris and her son, who accompanied the body, refused to talk.

Not Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The reported killing of Lieutenant Plummer of the Tenth Infantry by the Navajo Indians, can not be confirmed at the war department, and officers at duty here place little reliance in it.

GREYSIAN got in the Cabinet but "where is Wayne McVeagh at?"—Fleming Gazette.

After the terrible blows dealt the G.
O. P. by Wayne McVeagh last fall, we are not surprised that Republicans are anxious to know just "where he is at."
They want to keep both eyes on him.

HERE are a few words of encouragement for Brother Zoller of the Mt. Olivet Tribune-Democrat. Southern Progress
says: "Long distance electric lines bid fair to become as popular as a factor in the rapid transit problem between cities
as the trolley has in the matter of urban transportation. It is now proposed to build such a line from Gallatin, Tenn.,
to Nashville upon the bed of the turnpike." The electric railway may take the place of the omnibus in the not-distant future, with the wonderful progress
now being made.

RIVER NEWS.

Says the Irononian: "The Henry M.
Stanley and the opposition Sherley both carried excursion parties from Charleston to Cincinnati Monday. The rate of the former was $5 for the round trip while the latter only charged $3, but the Stanley
had the largest crowd."

The last issue of the Gallipolis Journal has the following marine romance: "Robert Jones, steward of the Telegraph, was admitted to the United States Marine Hospital for treatment last Sunday, and on Tuesday John Jones was admitted off
the steamer Park Painter. Neither Jones knew the other, but it was soon developed that they were brothers that had not met for several years. The meeting proved very agreeable, both taking a happy cry over it."

The Ohio has been an unlucky boat,
and yet her name hasn't an "M" in it.
The accident this week was the most disastrous she has met with. Fourteen people lost their lives by the collapsing of one of her flues. The Enquirer says: "In 1835 there was just such an accident to the Wyoming, which ran in the Maysville line. Just as she backed out from the wharfboat, in Cincinnati, her flue collapsed and her boiler went up, striking the cabin floor, rebounded and went into the river. There were two or three killed."

NIGHTWATCHMAN JOHN D. ROE was standing on the west side of Market street, near Second, about midnight last night, when some one threw a small dynamite bomb or big torpedo at him from the opposite corner. He shot twice at the party but his aim was not good in the darkness. One of the balls passed through the big show-window at Lee's clothing store. This is the second time of late that "bombs" have been thrown at Mr. Roe, and he intends putting a stop to it.

A LOCOMOTIVE working under a pressure of 140 to 165 pounds to the square inch of boiler surface can move a train with a velocity as high as sixty miles per hour
and, under exceptionally good circumstances and conditions, even seventy-five miles in the same length of time. While we are apt to set this down as a wonderful rate of speed, says an exchange, it is slow, very slow, when compared with the velocity of a projectile fired from a modern "great gun" of the one-hundred-ton variety. Such missiles push forward through the air at the unthinkable rate of 1,355 miles per hour, the impelling force exerting a pressure of 45,000 pounds
to each square inch.

THE sensation of the hour in Lancaster is the publication of the names of those who signed the petition requesting Judge Robinson to order an election on the question of local option. The whole number of signers is 301, equally divided between whites and black. Only ninety-eight live in Lancaster, the remaining 203 in the country. Of the ninety-eight residing in town, only eighteen are white,
just nine of whom are, have been or expect to become interested in the liquor business. The Law and Order League asserts that seventeen signers of the petition have been indicted for or convicted of crime. There's a general howl as a result of the publication, for the majority of the signers had no idea the petition would ever be paraded before the public in a newspaper. There is a hot fight over the question.

GERMANTOWN.

Judge Dora and wife attended church in Maysville Sunday.

Rev. P. H. Ebricht and wife are visiting friends in this section.

Miss Della Thompson has opened a select school
at the school building here.

Messrs. Dimmitt & Sheeler have closed out their stock at auction, and the room is for rent.

Professor Dillenbeck was greeted by a medium sized audience, who speak very highly of his efforts.

R. D. Power and E. D. Case have gone to Augusta to erect a handsome residence for L. P.
Knoedler, the popular druggist of that place.

If there is any truth in the old saying that "straws tell which way the wind blows," our new P. M. is likely to have a handsome deputy from the Chatham neighborhood.

These are "the times that try men's souls."
We will promise a nice notice in the BULLETIN to the man who can be about where women are housekeeping for half a day and keep his equilibrium.

Thomas Irwin, Jr., was giving an exhibition of his equestrianship last Saturday, and much to his mortification he went over the horse's head and landed at some distance on the pike. Fortunately he is only compelled to nurse both arms until the skin grows over the wounds.

Messrs. J. A. Thompson, John Sheeler and Wm.
Jolly have purchased, through Thompson & Mc-Atee of Maysville, a "Flying Dutchman," run by steam, and will soon embark on a lengthy journey, taking in the World's Fair. They are worthy, honorable men, and we commend them to the tender mercies of any people among whom they may cast their lot.

Wm. Dickson, Jr., having secured the outfit of Isaac Woodward in the undertaking business, has purchased a new hearse of elegant style, will proceed to erect a suitable room, and keep on hand a large and well selected stock of coffins and caskets, from the cheapest to the most expensive. He has chosen a very necessary, but we should think a very unenviable calling. Riding along Main street in a buggy with one of the greatest surgeons the world has ever produced,
then passed three score and ten, and passing an undertaking establishment he remarked that he "never passed one of those places without feeling sad, that he never put his hand on a corpse without shuddering, and he could not bear the idea of his body decaying in the grave."
True to his convictions, he left explicit directions in his will that his body should be cremated, and all that remains of that great man is contained in an urn by the grave of his wife in the cemetery at Philadelphia.

MAYSICK.

Mrs. Rebecca Clary, who has been visiting in Cincinnati, returned home last week.

Mrs. John Huffman, who has been sick for some weeks, is no better, but still poorly.

House cleaning is now the order of the day.
Cold dinners and get-out-of-my-way is the order.

Perhaps the greater portion of the corn planting will be finished up this week, if the weather permits.

There were six Maysvillians here Monday night assisting in some work pertaining to the order of I. O. O. F.

John Gray, who drives the Carlisle mail wagon, was behind time last Thursday. He had a big load and sprung one of his axles.

W. R. Devin, who lives some three miles south of this place, has a three-year-old cow that has three calves, all heifers, doing well. Bob is a thrifty fellow. So is the cow.

During our stay in Bourbon County last week
we noticed the peach crop especially. There will be an abundant crop, also of all other fruits,
if nothing further happens to it.

Some of our dusky damsels got a little out of humor last Friday and had several fights. Our Police Judge presided at their trial, and in three cases imposed a fine of $30 on Ann Brown.

On Thursday morning, April 25th, a boy's cape off an overcoat was left on the train of the Maysville division of the K. C. railroad at Paris.
Anyone finding same please leave at Helena Station, marked to J. A. Jackson, of Mayslick.

A union song service was given on Sunday evening in the Baptist Church, conducted by Professors H. A. and A. M. Woody, of Chicago, and assisted by Revs. Tindler and Hibbs and all singers of our town, which attracted a large and very appreciative audience. To say that our citizens were highly entertained would be stating it mildly. They organized a musical convention of about thirty-five members, and will conduct a week's meeting here. They are connected with C. E. Leslie, the author and publisher, and give instructions from Mr. Leslie's patent chart. They expect to hold a number of conventions in this part of the State, and judging from what we have seen of their work we pronounce them away up. Professor H. A.
Woody has recently become a citizen of Cynthiana, having married Miss Anna Parish, one of Cynthiana's fair daughters. The father and son rendered some duets and solos Sunday evening that were delightfully charming, and we commend them to any city, town or community
which they may visit.

Cochran, of Battle Run, this county, died Thurs-

ville Saturday.

Married, at 1 o'clock p. m., Tuesday, May 9th,
John A. Lee and Miss Lula A. Wilson, of this vicinity. They left on the evening train to take in the World's Fair and Chicago generally. Ceremony by Rev. G. W. Young, of Cynthiana.

Much is said about Sunday opening at the World's Fair. It is safe to say that the christian people all over the great American Republic will be deeply grieved and mortified if the Lord's day is to be desecrated by having no Sabbath at Chicago. We have now a grand opportunity to show the civilized and half civilized nations of the world that the Holy Sabbath is revered by the greatest Republic on the face of the earth.
Shall we lose the opportunity and stand disgraced? May we not tremble and fear that Jehovah will send a curse on the land for such profanation, such sacrilege. Let the lovers of mammon pause and consider. "God is not mocked; whatsoever a man soweth, that shall
he also reap."

A Warm Fight Over the Liquor Question in Voting Precinct No. 7.

A special election will be held in voting precinct No. 7 ("Plugtown") next Saturday on the question as to whether or not spirituous, vinous or malt liquors shall be "sold, bartered or loaned" in the precinct. What is known as the old "Crawford stand," on the Germantown pike, on Lawrence Creek, is included in the bounds of this precinct, and it is here the fight originated.

Repeated efforts have been made in the past year to secure a license for the sale of liquor at the point named, but the temperance element of the neighborhood filed strong protests, and the applications were refused. The temperance element finally decided to have the matter settled definitely by taking a vote on the question.

The election will be held Saturday under the secret ballot system. Both sides are making a warm fight. The extent to which the contest is being carried is evidenced by a report circulated that if the question carries, no one in the precinct will be allowed to keep liquor even at his home. The law is very plain, however. The question to be voted on is whether liquor shall be "sold, bartered or loaned."

The jail at West Union is said to be in a horrible sanitary condition and the State Board of Charities of Ohio will inspect it.

Mr. S. B. Oldham, the plumber, is fitting water fixtures in the office and residence of Dr. R. M. Skinner, at Flemingsburg.

It is understood that the indictments against editor Moore and W. T. Ficklen, found by the Bourbon grand jury, will also be filed away.—Bourbon News.

THE friends of Henry D. Wood, formerly of this city, will regret to learn of the death of his wife, Lillian Taylor Wood. She died at Cincinnati yesterday morning, aged 29 years. She was a daughter of Captain Taylor who was in the hotel business here at one time. She leaves one daughter, aged 12 years. Mr. Wood has the sympathy of his friends in this city.

SAYS the Frankfort Capital: "Mr. Frank O'Donnell, a promising young barrister of Maysville, and a popular candidate for County Attorney, was in Frankfort Saturday to appear before the Court of Appeals to argue the case of Quaney vs. Marshall. Mr. O'Donnell is extremely popular, a good mixer, and in every way excellently prepared to perform the duties of County Attorney, and his election will be a just compliment to a worthy young man."

JOHN MOORE, aged forty-five, got ready to elope with Phillis Green, aged eighteen. He furnished her wedding trousseau, and had all arrangements made, but when John gave the signal agreed, Phillis appeared at the window and told him that she had better business than eloping with him, and the best thing he could do was to go jump in the river. John pleaded, first for Phillis and then for the trousseau, but to his prayers she was obdurate, so John drowned his disappointment with liquor. This all occurred at Portsmouth.

SAYS the Irononian, of Ironton: "Sam R. Elkins, aged fifty-two years, engineer on the C. and O. ferryboat, had his hand crushed by getting the member between the head chains and the ferryboat check post while landing. Three of his fingers were broken and the hand otherwise bruised and crushed. Elkins is married and has a wife and three children at his home in Aberdeen, O."

C. B. RYAN, of the C. and O. Railroad, states that the New York Central's claim to having the largest locomotive in the world and on exhibition at the World's Fair is untenable. Number 350, the monster consolidation iron horse on the C. and O., weighs 127,600 pounds, much in excess of that of the New York Central's engine, and yet the big locomotives used in pulling the F. F. V. over the mountains dwarf it in comparison, their weights being 135,000 pounds.

A TOBACCO FACTORY.

A Meeting to Be Held at the Council Chamber Friday Evening to Organize a Company.

A meeting was held in this city last night for the discussion of a proposition to start a tobacco factory. Parties were present from another point, who are interested in the business. They fully understand that Maysville offers many advantages not possessed by other cities as a location for such an enterprise.

The result of the meeting justifies the BULLETIN in saying that the prospects for securing the establishment of a plug tobacco factory here are very good. For good and sufficient reasons the names of the parties who were here last night are withheld for the present. If the factory is started it will be located in one of Maysville's largest business houses, and it will prove quite an addition to the city's industries.

A public meeting will be held in the Council Chamber next Friday evening at 7:30, when the matter will likely be decided definitely. The business men of the city are invited to be present.

THE EXTRA SESSION.

Cleveland Urged to Call It Before September to Discuss Money Matters.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—Congressman Bynum of Indiana had an interview with the president on the subject of an extra session to be called earlier than September, the need for legislation on the financial question becoming apparent even to the most callous Democrat, much to the satisfaction of Mr. Cleveland and his cabinet. Mr. Bynum had urged that the date of the assembling of congress be fixed in June, and the proposition is receiving serious consideration. September is one of the most unpleasant months of the year in Washington. The days are stifling hot and humid and there is a general affliction of malarial complaints, which drives every one who is able to get away, out of the city.

Apart from this is the fact that further drains on the gold reserve are expected, which can not be made up by spasmodic and uncertain contributions from the banks. There is nothing serious in the present condition of affairs, but the uncertainty regarding the future is a cause for apprehension.

The troublesome feature connected with the proposed calling of congress together is the organization of the senate on the silver question, and the certainty of a protracted debate in both branches of congress.

Speaker Crisp called at the White House, and, it is understood, discussed with the president the advisability of an early extra session.

BATTLE WITH HUNGARIANS.

One Man Killed and Several Others Dangerously Wounded.

PITTSBURG, May 10.—Constable Schade, accompanied by Deputy South, went to shanty No. 16, South Side, Irwin, to arrest a number of Hungarians, who were charged with the larceny of some beer.

Upon their arrival they found the house barricaded, but forced their way in, and were met by a volley of bullets from the Hungarians, one of which struck Constable Schade in the arm, while a woman dashed a skillet full of hot grease into the face of Officer South, scalding him terribly.

Not being armed, they returned to Irwin, where they deputized a posse and returned. This time they found the Hungarians upstairs with drawn revolvers. The officers started upstairs only to be met by another volley of bullets. They were prepared this time, and returned the fire, and for a while the bullets flew as thick as hail, but the Hungarians finally surrendered.

When the smoke of battle had cleared away it was found that three of the foreigners were wounded, one of them, John Ilko, fatally. He lived only a short time. His wife was shot in the arm and Joseph Pamah in the hand. All of them, seven in number, were arrested and taken to the Greensburg jail.

Mrs. Ilko, as soon as her husband died, deserted him and left for Brad-dock, leaving his dead body in the house.

The Incubation of Crinolines.

If there is one human being that I despise more than another, it is a man milliner. Ladies' dress is a mystery to me, and my ideas in regard to it are somewhat vague. But as newspapers are raising an outcry against crinolines I will venture to explain their incubation. They were due to the desire in an abnormal fit of common sense of women to have a rational costume.

Either the queen or one of the princesses wore, or was said to wear, at Balmoral thick boots coming high up the leg. All loyal women insisted upon following this example and wearing "Balmoral boots." The ladies had no objection to show these boots, and, still being under the influence of common sense, objected to their dresses trailing on the ground when they were out walking. The next step was to have a scarlet petticoat over the flannel and other underclothes.

This scarlet petticoat came about half way down the calf, and over it was worn a skirt which fell to the feet when indoors, but which when out walking was drawn up by a cord in festoons, coming a little above the scarlet petticoat. To this costume were added stockings of some bright color and a blouse with wide sleeves and a waistband, with over it a zouave sort of jacket. What I contend is that the crinoline was not, until exaggeration set in, a cage, but merely one detail in a pretty and practical costume.—London Truth.

Penalty of Being Short on Kisses.

When Jonas Greenbaum makes out a check for $3,500, which sum a jury yesterday decided he should pay Miss Irma Heilbron for trifling with her young affections, he will not sign it.

Yours as ever loving Joe.
While the jury were a little loath to reveal the secrets of their deliberations, one of them intimated last night that "the kisses did it." In his loving epistles to Irma "Yours as ever loving Joe" contracted to deliver an almost inconceivable number of these tokens of affection. He defaulted, and the jury figured out the damages as follows:

One carload kisses (not delivered).....	$1,000
One million kisses (not delivered).....	750
One lot—3½ bushels—kisses (not delivered).....	325
Several bushels kisses (not delivered).....	250
Many sweet kisses (not delivered).....	150
Sundry job lot kisses (not delivered).....	25
Heartaches.....	500
Disappointment and wrecked hopes.....	500
	$3,500

When Miss Irma heard the verdict read, she smiled, and when her friends congratulated her she smiled again. She said she was happy in the vindication the verdict gave her.—Chicago Tribune.

Foolish Girls and Silly Fathers.

The culpability of the modern father in allowing his daughters to marry with out any investigation as to the standing or character of the young man in the case received a striking illustration last week. Miss Florence Cushing was a pretty young lady, who graduated from the Rockland high school and afterward had an office in this city, where she did typewriting and copying. On Nov. 15 she was married at the residence of her father, Brainard Cushing, to one F. W. Williams, who represented that he was an agent of the Thompson-Houston Electric company. He took his bride to Chicago, where, after running a bill of $500 at the Richelieu and selling his wife's jewels, he calmly deserted her, even carrying off her silver purse of change. Mr. Cushing has taken the heartbroken girl home, and an investigation—all too late—has disclosed the fact that Williams' statements as to his business and standing were false.—Boston Courier.

Dr. G. C. Osgood,

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Dr. J. F. KINCHELOE,
